

At the present time our media is controlled by only four major corporations. Rather than allowing more control by the same people, it is your duty to break up this controll of our new source and assure the public that no single corporation can own more than one outlet within a 100 mile radis.